

LEAVE NO TRACE: CERTIFIED AWARENESS COURSE

Do you want to promote responsible outdoor learning in your school? Join Branch Out for an introductory workshop on Leave No Trace principles, designed specifically for teachers looking to integrate sustainable outdoor ethics into their field trips and school policies.

Why Attend?

- Gain a solid foundation in Leave No Trace ethics.
- Ensure your field trips are sustainable, responsible, and impactful.
- Take the first step toward becoming a certified Leave No Trace provider.
- Help shape environmentally conscious students and future leaders.

What You'll Learn

✓ The 7 Leave No Trace Principles:

Practical ways to minimize impact outdoors.

✓ Applying Leave No Trace to Field Trips:

Policies and strategies for responsible outdoor learning.

✓ School-Based Sustainability:

How to bring these principles into the school environment.

✓ Building a Leave No Trace Culture:

Engaging students in ethical outdoor behavior.

✓ Pathway to Becoming a Leave No Trace Provider:

Your first step toward teaching beginner courses in schools.

✓ Live Q&A:

Get your questions answered by experienced field study educators!

Programme

Online Session:

2 hours evening online session

Practical outdoor workshop:

9.30 am Introduction and workshop brief

9.45 am 7 principals of leave no Trace

12.45 pm Course debrief and eat lunch while sitting around a sustainable camp fire.

1.15 pm Tidy up

1.30 pm Finish

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Date: TBC

Duration: 5 hours

Online 2-hour session and 3-hour practical

Location: Larch Hill, Co. Dublin

For: Teachers of all levels – no prior experience needed

Price: €55.00 per person

